

Austria

One transmitter at the Moosbrunn site has been converted to DRM and there have been several tests to the UK from this site by both OE1 and UK commercial broadcasters.

The transmitter site is ideally placed to send a stable signal into the UK but as of B09 the joint BBC & DW service is the only broadcaster using the site for services to Europe for 4 hours per day..